Child Protection

It is an offence for a prohibited person to apply for, attempt to obtain, undertake or remain in child-related employment, or to sign this declaration. A prohibited person is a person who is convicted of the following (whether in NSW or elsewhere):

- murder of a child
- serious sex offence, including carnal knowledge
- child-related personal violence offence (an offence committed by an adult involving intentionally wounding or causing grievous bodily harm to a child)
- indecency offences punishable by imprisonment of 12 months or more
- kidnapping (unless the offender is or has been the child's parent or carer)
- offences connected with child prostitution
- possession, distribution or publication of child pornography; or
- attempt, conspiracy or incitement to commit the above offences.

A prohibited person includes a Registrable person under the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000.

Details of these offences can be found online at Working With Children Employer Guidelines. A conviction includes a finding that the charge for an offence is proven, or that a person is guilty of an offence, even though the court does not proceed to a conviction.

Other Terms and Conditions

The applicant:

- agrees to waive rights against the organisation including directors and volunteers.
- agrees to consent to necessary medical treatment and agree to pay for any medical treatment costs (including transport by ambulance).
- acknowledges that the sport has some limited group personal accident and liability insurance policies in place and that the details of cover can be viewed on the ANSW website www.nswathletics.org.au.
- acknowledges that the individual should consider their own financial circumstances and consider taking out private health insurance and income protection. The applicant acknowledges that if a claim is made he or she is responsible for paying the excess.
- acknowledges that a cancellation of a registration by either party will not result in a refund except where deemed appropriate by ANSW in accordance with the ANSW constitution and any other relevant policies. Refunds will only be given under exceptional circumstances and will incur an administration charge. In some cases, registration may be rolled over to the following season at the discretion of ANSW.
